BILLY SUNDAY AND 'MA' LOOK IN ON D. C.

Billy Sunday is back in Washington today for the first time since his memorable campaign here last winter.

Looking the picture of health and vigor after a strenuous campaign at Fort Worth, Tex., Billy and "Ma" stepped from a Chesapeake and Ohio train at Union Station yesterday, and went directly to the home of their son, Licut. George Sunday, at 648 Keefer place north-

Yesterday was spent in calling on the many friends in public and private life that Billy and "Ma' made during the campaign here last year. They will board the 11:45 train this morning for Richmond, where Billy opens a six-to drive the devil out of that "burg." Billy expressed delight at being in Washington once again, and paid a glowing tribute to the people of the nation's Capital. He said he was surprised to see there were so many bootleggers at large, but that he expected whiskey and all its cohorts to be annihilated before another six

Throat in Good Shape.

Billy's throat, which gave him se much trouble in Washington and caused members of his party to believe that the Washington campaign would be his last, is in first-class condition. It has not troubled him since an operation which Billy underwent in Chicago, and a long period of recuperation on his ranch at Hood River, Oreg., gave it a long

Starting at the White House yesterday Billy called on Secretary Tumulty, and then in turn on Secretaries Baker and Daniels, Brigadier General Saltzman, Mrs. Julian James Mrs. William Crozier, Mrs. Marshall Field, Postmaster Chance, Byron S. Adams, Charles Buller and H. S. Omo-

TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST SPITTING ON SIDEWALKS

Major Raymond W. Pullman, Superintendent of Police, today ordered policemen of all precincts to enforce the regulation prohibiting spitting on the sidewalks in the District.

"Spitting is a filthy habit," said
Major Pullman. "It is hard for public health officials and physicians to check the ravages of disease when thoughtless people do as much as possible to spread germs through the spitting habit. Some of these people. who spit on the sidewalk or in public buildings unfortunately do not know the police regulations. Ignorance of the law is no excuse. Police of all precincts have been instructed to arrest all persons who violate the regulation governing spitting on the side-The regulation reads:

"No person shall expectorate or spit in or upon any part of any street railway car, or other public vehicle carrying passengers for hire, or in or upon any part of any public building under the control of the Commission ers of the District of Columbia, or in or upon any parking, footpath or sidewalk in the District of Columbia."
